ANTI-RACISM & EQUITY FUNDING FOR TRAINING

Guidelines and Training Opportunities to consider

This Provincial OSSTF funding is to support members who wish to seek Anti-Racism and Equity Training. Applications will be considered for workshops, training, conferences and courses. Funding is only provided for the cost of the workshop registration or course fee & necessary materials. The maximum amount is $400/member. Funding is provided on a first-come first-served basis.

Please wait for approval prior to incurring any expenses to ensure you will receive reimbursement. If you have any questions or concerns about the application process, please contact our office.

OSSTF/FEESO Members, Districts, Bargaining Units, and provincial staff suggest some of the following training/resources:

- Elders and Traditional Peoples Gathering – This event connects students, community members and Elders, and is hosted by the First Peoples House of PC #37/2022-2023 Page 2 Learning and the Chanie Wenjack School for Indigenous Studies at Trent University.
- A Different Booklist – A bookstore in Toronto which occasionally hosts workshops/events
- Equity Literacy Institute – Learning to be a threat to inequity and a cultivator of equity in our spheres of influence.
 - Another Level: A Month-Long Conversation About Anti-Racism in Education with Cornelius Minor, Yolanda Sealey-Ruiz, Cheryl Matias, and Paul Gorski.
 - Equity Facilitators Training
- eCornell – Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Certificate
- University of British Columbia – Certificate in Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion
- Ontario Alliance of Black School Educators \(ONABSE\) Conference - Annual conference in April features several keynote speakers, workshops, exhibitors, a career fair, awards and more.
- Harmony Movement - provides interactive diversity and equity education programs that empower and inspire youth, educators and those in the social service sector to develop an equity lens, empathy, respect, and leadership skills as leaders for social change.
- Urban Alliance for Race Relations - is a non-profit charitable organization that works primarily and proactively with the community, public and private sectors to provide educational programs and research, which are critical in addressing racism in society.
